

Susan Rindley has joined One Sotheby's International Realty®

Susan Rindley, a South Florida native, has joined ONE Sotheby's International Realty®. Rindley brings to Sotheby's International Realty® over 13 years of experience in the South Florida luxury real estate market.

"I was drawn to Sotheby's International Realty® for many reasons," says Rindley. "With over 500 offices in 40 countries and territories, I will be able to provide my clients with an exceptional global reach—not to mention our local presence with offices in South Beach, Coral Gables, and now Las Olas Boulevard in Fort Lauderdale."

"We first got to know Susan because of her amazing advertising," says Daniel de la Vega, broker of ONE Sotheby's International Realty®. "I feel that Susan is a true professional. She takes pride in everything from the way she dresses to the way she markets herself. Susan is someone who can deal with any kind of client in any kind of situation."

Rindley graduated from the University of Florida with a degree in finance. Real estate is her passion, and she loves what she does, often interweaving her personal and professional lives. That's why her clients often turn into friends. "Susan is an outstanding executive—she's dynamic, hardworking and has every admirable trait I can think of," says Tom Cundy, chairman and CEO of Cundy Inc. in Fort Lauderdale. "Her knowledge is remarkable, and her honesty and integrity are beyond reproach."

Rindley, who lives in Harbor Beach, is active in the community. She is the 2010 co-chairwoman of the Tiara Ball, a fundraiser for The Royal Dames of Cancer Research, and she volunteers for the Cystic Fibrosis Foundation and the Leukemia & Lymphoma Society.

Susan Rindley can be reached at 954-294-5686, at her new office at 888 E. Las Olas Boulevard in Fort Lauderdale, or at srindley@onesothebysrealty.com.

Visit onesothebysrealty.com to learn more about One Sotheby's International Realty®.

